FACTS
WHAT DOES NATIONSTAR MORTGAGE DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why? Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What? The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:
- Social Security number and income
- Account balances and payment history
- Credit history and credit scores

How? All financial companies need to share customers’ personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers’ personal information; the reasons Nationstar chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

Who we are

Who is providing this notice?
Nationstar Mortgage LLC and its family of mortgage and financial companies. See below for a list of the names of these companies.

What we do

How does Nationstar protect my personal information?
To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings. We also contractually require third parties doing business with us to comply with all privacy and security laws.

How does Nationstar collect my personal information?
We collect your personal information, for example, when you
- apply for a loan or give us your income information
- provide employment information or give us your contact information
- provide account information

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can’t I limit all sharing?
Federal law gives you the right to limit only
- sharing for affiliates’ everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on your rights under state law.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?
Your choices will apply to everyone on your account.

Other important information

Do Not Call Policy – This notice is the Nationstar Do Not Call Policy under the Telephone Consumer Protection Act. We do not solicit via telephone numbers listed on the state or federal Do Not Call lists, unless the law allows. Nationstar associates receive training on how to document and process telephone marketing choices. Consumers who ask not to receive telephone solicitations from Nationstar will be placed on the Nationstar Do Not Call list and will not be called in any future campaigns, including those of Nationstar affiliates. If you communicate with us by telephone, we may monitor or record the call.

For Nevada Residents Only – We are providing you this notice pursuant to state law. You may be placed on our internal Do Not Call List by following the directions in the To Limit direct marketing contact section. Nevada law requires we provide the following contact information: Bureau of Consumer Protection, Office of the Nevada Attorney General, 555 E. Washington Street, Suite 3900, Las Vegas, NV 89101; Phone number – 702.486.3132; email BCPINFO@ag.state.nv.us

For California Residents Only — If you live in California, you will receive a different notice that reflects your rights under California and federal law.

For Vermont Residents Only — If you live in Vermont, we will not share your personal information with nonaffiliates, except for our everyday business and marketing purposes. Also, we will not share information about your creditworthiness with affiliates unless you agree to such sharing. Vermont residents do not have to contact us to implement these limits on our sharing. We may share information about your transactions and experiences with affiliates for their everyday business purposes and to market to you, but you can stop them from using the information in marketing by checking the box marked “Do not allow your affiliates to use my personal information to market to me,” on the Mail-in Form above.
